Are you an awake and aware young professional looking for spiritual and modest living a short 15 miles from downtown? My husband Aliester and myself have perfect cozy amenities that are priced to afford.

Your abode will be a 10x15 foot dwelling, lovingly converted from a humble garden shed by my paramour Lucien DMT Cornmeal. The dwelling is on a charming 2-acre lot, with plenty of juniper-side bathroom access and overflow lighting from the security lamp on our porch. All utilities are included (except for electricity, plumbing, and heat) and you may share one half of a trashcan with Aliester and I for monthly garbage pickups. You may have the password to our Wi-Fi for an additional $60 a month.

You should be:

- A QUIET, respectful tenant capable of hiding from our view a minimum of 18 hours a day
- A spiritually-aware person who does not drink, do drugs, gamble, eat meat, or is over-dependent on oxygen
- A single tenant, without pets. You'll be more than entertained with the wildlife in your dwelling
- Willing to displace the carbon you exhale with an appropriate number of oxygen-producing plants. Please call our contact at Plants of the Southwest for recommendations. Ask for Respiro the Breathing Monk
- Free from self-limiting and unenlightened thoughts that divert valuable oxygen away from the brain stem
- Willing to practice a minimum of 3 hours shallow-breathing meditation per day
- Smoking is an abomination and will be met with absolute fury

To apply, please send first, last, and middle month's rent along with a current oximeter readout, three references from previous landlords, and a $700 non-refundable oxygen deposit to our mailbox. Lucien will come out in a gray Evolution 5000 military gas mask (see image) to collect your payment.

Blessings,

Mary and Aliester Aaaah Shaaaaaa AAAAA AAAAA (please learn the proper pronunciation of our names before submitting application).
